

Parallel Short Papers

Session 1, Tuesday 11.00-12.30
THEME	ROOM	CHAIR (to be confirmed)
Media, Public Life and Public Theology	RIC 004/1	Sebastian Kim	Andrew Greystone, Church and Media Network, UK: Towards a new Broadcasting Covenant.
			Stephen Garner, University of Auckland, NZ: Old Texts and New Media: Doing Public Theology in a Biblically Illiterate, Popular Cultural World.
Media, Public Life and Public Theology	RIC 004/2	Clive Pearson	James D. Holt, University of Chester: "I'm a Mormon": the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and its Utilization of an Integrated Media Campaign. What is its Purpose?
			Ezequiel de Souza, Escola Superior de Teologia, Brazil: Theology as a Political Commitment from the Liberation Theology in Latin America: an approach to the contribution of Leonardo Boff
Globalization	RIC 013	Jaco Dreyer	Adam Shreve, University of Edinburgh: Jesus on a Mobile Phone in Zimbabwe
			Vuyani Vellem, University of Pretoria: A Black Reflection on Culture and the Media in Post 1994 South Africa

Parallel Short Papers

Session 2, Tuesday 14.30-16.00
THEME	ROOM	CHAIR
Media, Public Life and Public Theology	RIC 004/1	William Emilsen	Andrew Bradstock, University of Otago, NZ: Doing Public Theology in a Straightened Public Square
			Nico Koopman, Byers Naude Centre, Stellenbosch University: Prophetic Public Theology and the media in South Africa. Duel or duet?
Media, Public Life and Public Theology	RIC 004/2	Clive Pearson	Bex Lewis, CODEC (Centre for Christian Communication in a Digital Age), Durham University: Engaging in Discipleship in a Digital Age
			Matt Brain, Andrew Robinson and Geoff Broughton, Charles Sturt University/St. Mark's National Theological Centre, Canberra, Australia: Public and Personal: Negotiating friendship in the Facebook Age
Theological Sources and Resources	RIC 013	Esther McIntosh	Jaco S. Dreyer, University of South Africa, Pretoria, SA: Religion in the Public Sphere: what can public theology learn from Habermas' latest work?
			Eneida Jacobsen, Faculdades EST, Brazil: Religion in the Public Sphere: on the Theological reception of Jürgen Habermas' Political Theory and its relevance for a Global Public Theology

Parallel Short Papers

Session 3: Thursday 11.00-12.30
THEME	ROOM	CHAIR
Media, Public Life and Public Theology	RIC 004/1	David Tombs	Esther McIntosh, York St. John University: Belonging without Believing? Social Networking Media and the Concept of Church
			Clive Pearson, Charles Sturt University: Twittering Good News? The Rise of the Fifth Estate and a Public Theology
Media, Public Life and Public Theology	RIC 004/2	Graeme Smith	Jenny Anne Wright, York St. John University: With whose voice and with what language? What it means to speak "Christian" in public
			John Forrest, TV producer-director and director, Insight Film Festival, Manchester, UK: Reflections on the role of entertainment in theological communication
Globalization	RIC 013	Nico Koopman	Robert Borrong, Jakarta Theological Seminary, Indonesia: The Role of Television in increasing consumerist behaviour in children: the Indonesian case
			Christo Lombard, University of the Western Cape: Moral formation towards a human rights culture
Theological Sources and Resources	RIC 004/3	tbc	Robert Gascoigne, School of Theology, Australian Catholic University: The Encyclical "Pacem in Terris" as an act of Global Public Theology
			Etienne de Villiers, University of Pretoria, South Africa: In search of an appropriate contemporary ethical approach in Public Theology: Max Weber's Ethic of Responsibility as Resource

Parallel Short Papers

Session 4: Friday 9.00-10.30
THEME	ROOM	CHAIR
Media, Public Life and Public Theology	RIC 004/1	Katie Day	Andrew Todd, Cardiff Centre for Chaplaincy Studies, University of Cardiff & St. Michael's College, Llandaff, Wales: Repatriations as Re-membering who we are: Military/Media Rituals and the Power of the Sacred
			David Tombs, Irish School of Ecumenics, Trinity College Dublin: Regarding the Shame of Others
Globalization	RIC 004/2	Sebastian Kim	Sylvia Losansky, University of Bamberg: The contribution of the Christian churches to societal cohesion in Europe
			Anlené Taljaard, University of the Free State/Beyers Naudé Centre for Public Theology, Stellenbosch University, South Africa: South Africa: Reconciliation as rooted in the word and the Word?
Theological Sources and Resources	RIC 013	Chris Baker	Victoria Nesfield, York St. John University: The Sanctification of the Holocaust in the Media and its Impact on Israel and Judaism